

We have chosen to concentrate on Question 4 which is most significant to us.

Businesses are unwilling to pay for information whether public or private.
It is our experience that payment is only acceptable when there is a demonstrable benefit to their business. This is most likely when information is provided as part of a strategy developed in response to a request for help with business planning.

Graham Birkett

UK566, Nottingham Fax: +44 115 985 6612